PRETEC x Devilrobots

TO-FU OYAKO is one of the main characters of Devilrobots, a creative unit based in Tokyo. This character has maintained prevalent popularity in Japan and around Asia thanks to its cute/funny facial expressions and the story behind.

For the year of 2009, Pretec has been working closely with Devilrobots to roll out a series of TOFU character products. Pretec introduced TOFU characters to its USB and card reader product lines to add more value. This cooperation represents the success of a cross-over design model that truly combines technology & art.

TO-FU OYAKO Story

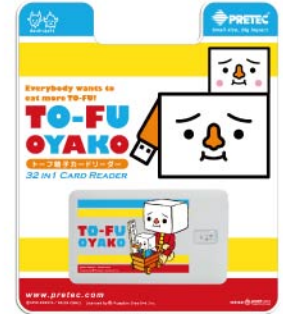

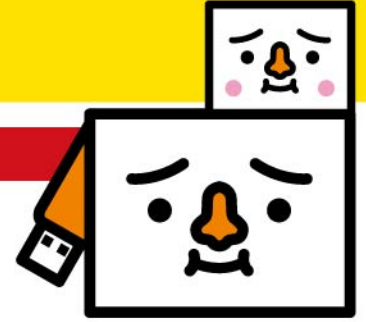

The story starts from a journey that a Mother & son take in order to find their father. Their heads are made of TO-FU and if they fall down, they will break their heads easily. That's why they always look sad because they are afraid they might break their heads!

The original characters are the Mother & Son but later in the story adds more TOFU characters including the latest "Poison To-Fu," a villain type of character, and many other...
